

Criteria for Disposing with the World 'Limited' from the name of a company (Section 16 of the Companies Act)

Section 16 of the Companies Act provides that where a company has

- (a) been registered; or
- (b) is about to be registered for promoting charity, commerce, art, science, religion or any other useful object and applies its income to promoting its objects and prohibit the payment of dividend to members, the Minister may direct that

- i) the company by special resolution change its name consisting of the omission of the word "limited" from its name.
- ii) be registered without the addition of the word "Limited" to its name.

In making the request, a letter may be addressed to the Hon. Minister (attention to the Director of Commerce). Certified copies (documents received from Companies Office of Jamaica at the time of registration) of the following documents should be submitted with the request:

- a. Certificate of Incorporation
- b. Articles of Incorporation; or
- c. Memorandum and Articles of Association.

The company must be registered as a company limited by guarantee and not having a share capital.

Its Memorandum and Articles of Association or Articles of Incorporation must be substantially framed as contained in Part A and Part B of the Twelfth Schedule of the Companies Act.

Within one week after receiving the application, a Notice of Application will be prepared. This Notice is to be collected by the applicant and published for two weeks in a national newspaper within a given two months period.

The applicant is then required to return the pages of the publication to the Ministry of Industry, Investment and Commerce and thereafter the Minister may grant a licence within a one week period after the expiration of fourteen (14) days from the date of the second publication

The Licence will be gazetted and the applicants copy is to be taken to the Office of the Registrar of Companies where a new Certificate will be issued to reflect the omission of 'Limited' from the company's name.

NB. There is no charge to this Ministry; however the applicant is responsible for associated costs of publication and charges at the Companies Office of Jamaica.
