The Influence of Artificial Shade and Supplementary Fodder on the Performance of lactating Dairy Cows

McDonald, E. And McDonald, D. (1995)

[Summary]
The objective was to determine the effect of housing and the provision of supplementary fodder during the daytime on the feed intake, milk production and fertility of lactation Jamaica Hope and Holstein cows.